DRAYTON VALLEY, ALBERTA
WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 11th, 1968

Obviously delighted, Lieutenant Governor Grant MacEwan is shown here accepting a desk set featuring a polished section of Pembina Field drill core from Mayor Henry Shimbashi (R). The presentation to Dr. MacEwan was made as a memento of his visit to Drayton Valley last Wednesday.

Address by Lieutenant Governor Enjoyed by Large Audience Here

A friendly, down to earth nature won another group of admirers for the distinguished and very popular Lieutenant Governor of Alberta Dr. J.W. Grant MacEwan who addressed a Rotary-sponsored dinner meeting in the Cadium Room last Wednesday evening.

In introducing the Lieutenant Governor Rotarian Howard Pickup related some of his accomplishments including the writing of 16 books covering technical subjects and the history of Western Canada. He is a former member of the Alberta Legislature and a Calgary Alderman and Mayor. He occupied senior positions in Saskatchewan and Manitoba universities before moving to Alberta.

Mr. Pickup also noted that Dr. MacEwan was in Drayton Valley at the same time as the farewell to Premier Manning was taking place in Edmonton. Though he would have liked to attend the farewell he honored the prior commitment to this community.

The year 1967 was a great occasion for Canadians Dr. MacEwan said, and expressed the hope that the fire of enthusiasm lighted by the Centennial would burn on forever. From the start made during the Centennial year he urged Canadians to go on getting to know the rest of Canada better. Problems of disunity could be overcome by a better understanding by Canadians of other parts of the country, he suggested.

There are many important dates in Canadian history besides 1867 he said and pointed out that a momentous event took place in Western Canada in 1868 and that November 19th of that year is one that should live on in history.

He went on to tell the story of the bid by United States representatives to buy Ruperts' Land

COUNTY NAME NOT SETTLED

Despite reports announcing the name of the new county encompassing this area as Yellowhead County, such is not yet the case.

Yellowhead has been submitted but it is understood that the suggested name is not completely favored by the Geographic Board of the province and the county might yet be named Two Rivers, Parkland or some other name.

CHRISTMAS MEETING

The Christmas meeting of the Ladies Hospital Auxiliary will be held on Thursday, December 12th at 8:00 p.m. in the Nurses Residence. Gift exchange.

Road Improvements Not Likely Very Soon

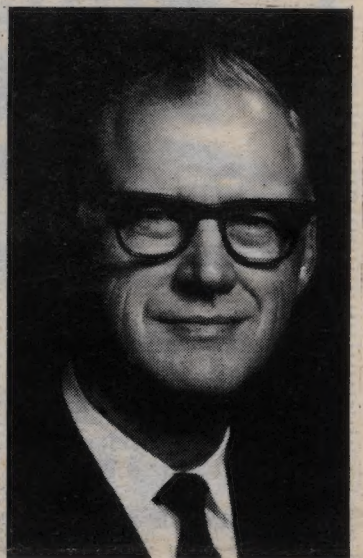

In reply to a recent request to the Department of Highways for improvement to Highway 57 north of Drayton Valley, Town Council has received information that such work is not likely to be scheduled in the near future.

In his reply, Mr. R.H. Cronkite, Chief Construction Engineer notes that wide shoulders improve the safety characteristics of a highway but adds that there are a number of others in the province of even narrower width to which the government cannot apply funds at the present time.

Town Council had requested wider shoulders between Drayton Valley and the Rocky Rapids Junction as a safety measure.

Mr. Cronkite went on to say, "We are certainly keeping such sections of highway under review and are making as many improvements as we can as quickly as possible where accident analysis shows that this action is essential. Again, however, with the limit on the amount of funds available, we deal with these on a priority basis, taking into account many factors."

HARRY STROM

Socred Leader

Harry Edwin Strom, as a result of a second ballot victory, emerged from five candidates at the Social Credit Convention last week as leader of the party and Premier-Designate of the province.

Deck the Halls

Town workmen were out Monday despite the cold, blustery weather getting the streets decked out with decorations of the holiday season. Their efforts have accomplished a fine festive look to the downtown area.

Holiday Schedule

The Western Review issue of December 18th (next week) will be the last in 1968. Holidays in the middle of both the ensuing weeks will make it almost impossible to produce papers and the first issue in 1969 will be on January 8th. Our issue of December 18th will be a usual edition but will carry a Christmas supplement to replace the paper of December 25th.

Individuals or organizations with information that should reach the public during late December and early January should make sure that it appears in next week's paper.

(what is now Western Canada) and extend its boundaries to Alaska, Canada, he said, almost lost the west and November 19th the day the government in Eastern Canada realized the magnitude of what was about to occur and took action to preserve the country- should be an occasion worthy of observation by Canadians.

One hundred years ago, he said, Western Canada was considered worthless other than a source of wild fur. But no where in the world has there been progress to match that of Western Canada in the past 100 years.

He urged Westerners to keep the country moving ahead and to protect the qualities and human vigor that went into creating the west of today. We can be proud of the past 100 years Dr. MacEwan said, but there is no reason to believe that we can coast the rest of the way. The nation, he said, is only as strong and vigorous as its people.

Dr. MacEwan throughout his address, without the benefit of notes, spoke with the authority of one who knows his subject thoroughly. His easy manner sprinkled with favorite expressions - "By Thunder" - and the like - won him an attentive audience and many admirers in the community.

Mayor Henry Shimbashi had the honor of presenting Dr. MacEwan with a souvenir of Drayton Valley and the guest of honor was clearly delighted with the desk set featuring a polished drill core from the Pembina Field.

Before he left to return to Edmonton, Dr. MacEwan had met and chatted briefly with all those present for the occasion.

RAMONA NEWS

At the last community meeting it was decided to have a short concert and Christmas party on December 22nd. This is a Sunday evening. We would like the mothers of the community to teach their children a recitation or song etc., for that evening. There will be a concert practice at the hall Saturday afternoon, December 14th, everyone is invited to attend and help us to work out a program.

Carrie Kelly is home from the hospital now and is feeling much better. She got so many nice gifts while in the hospital she feels like Christmas is past.

The Teen Club Christmas party is Friday, December 13th. We hope all members can attend and bring your gifts.

Carolling Planned By Kin Club

The Evansburg Kinsmen and Kinette Clubs will join forces Sunday, December 15th and revive the old medieval tradition of carolling which dates back to the 13th Century.

Carolling will be carried out door to door between the hours of 8:30 p.m. to 11:00 p.m. as a service to the community and to help propagate the true spirit of Christmas.

The only request the carollers have is that residents of Evansburg keep their outdoor lights on.

Choir to Sing Cantata

The Community Choir plans to sing a selection of carols and a short cantata "A Song Unending" by John Peterson at the following places this Christmas season:

- Sunday, December 15th at the Church of God at 7:00 p.m.

WEEKLY VIEWPOINT

A series of brief meditations for the readers of The Western Review prepared by the clergy of the Drayton Valley Ministerial Association

WHAT WENT WRONG BETWEEN US AND OUR CHILDREN?

BY REV. R. E. KEMP

Mr. and Mrs. James walked, almost in a daze, from the building that housed the juvenile courtroom. Their children had both been sent to reform schools just a few minutes before. Ruby, at fourteen, was their youngest and Bob was just one year older than his sister. They had been part of a gang of kids their own age who had been apprehended breaking into homes in their neighborhood.

Soon after they arrived at home both parents sat down in the living room. Mrs. James was so deep in thought that she didn't even notice the tears slipping down her husband's face. The house seemed so very big, and lonely, and quiet. Finally the silence was broken by Mr. James' simple question, "What went wrong between us and our children?"

Many parents of teenage children have become aware of an awful 'gap' between them and their children. All too few parents seriously try to bridge that gap until it is too late. There are many broken-hearted parents, but there are also many broken-hearted teenagers in the Drayton Valley area, over the great lack of communication between parent and child. Heed a few warnings before your family ends up in a similar situation to the James'.

Spend time together as a family unit. Go to sporting events, automobile trips and church together. Don't send your children to Sunday School. TAKE THEM! J. Edgar Hoover, director of the United States F.B.I. claims that if all of the juvenile delinquents appearing in court had gone to Sunday School as children, they probably would not be appearing in court.

Many parents shower gifts on their children. If love is not showered on the child then the gifts are of little value. Show interest in your youngster's activities. Be a part of them. Many parents spend much time at parties, shopping, visiting and doing all the other things that our fast moving society seems to ask of them, but these things are done at the expense of the children.

Remember, it was God's great love for us that motivated Him to send His Son Jesus to earth to be born in a manger! May this love be reflected in us during this Christmas season. May there be a spirit of harmony and happiness in your home during the days that are ahead. If Jesus Christ is part of your home, there will be.

Thanks Extended

A heartfelt thank you to Rev. Father Lynch, and to the Drayton Valley St. Anthony's C.W.L. for sponsoring my visit and presentation of slides in the gymnasium of the St. Anthony's school on December 2nd.

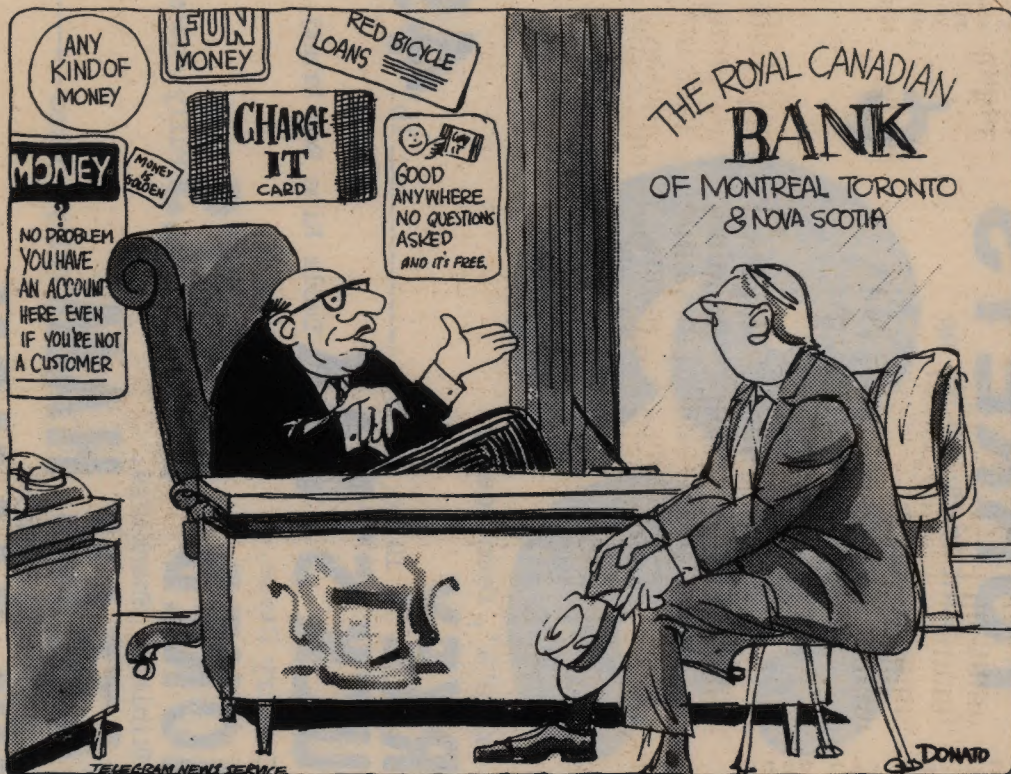

The attention and the size of the audience were very encouraging.

Thank you for the contributions and donations of clothing, which I trust you will continue to send to our natives at the following address.

Report From Parliament Hill

By Allen Sulatycky, M.P.

If the greatness of a country can be measured by the number of problems within it, then Canada must be a great country.

The two topics which created the most interest in the House of Commons in the past couple of weeks, have been the immense problem of the wet and damp wheat on the Prairies, and the difficult matter of marketing of the fish of the Atlantic region.

These two matters are indicative of the difficulty which any government faces in the sensible administration of a country as vast and as diverse as the country we live in.

A further complicating factor is the lack of understanding by the people of one region for the difficulties of the people of another. One of the sad commentaries on the two problems just mentioned, is that when the issue of wet wheat is brought up, the Members of Parliament who represent areas other than Western Canada tend to ignore it; when the fisheries are thrown into the spotlight, those Members who do not come from the Atlantic Provinces are then prone to play down the importance of this problem.

This of course points up the fact that there is still a great deal of regionalism prevalent in this country.

The same element shows up in any discussion of regional development. The topic of regional development and the elimination of regional disparities is one which is going to occupy much of the time of Parliament in the next few years, as it has in the past few years.

One of the first observations that can be made of the House of Commons, is the frequency with which Members from the Atlantic Region request the Government to assist in the economic development of that area.

These many demands are as likely as not to be falling on deaf ears, when they are heard by Members from other parts of the country. The same can be said of the demands made by Western Members.

The reason for the lack of understanding appears to be the tendency of Canadians to think of their country in terms of separate and distinct divisions more than to think of it as a unit, with several distinct, but integral sections.

It will be difficult to establish a cohesive economic state until Canadians in all parts of the country realize that when one portion of the nation is facing economic difficulties, the rest of the nation also suffers.

It may be a long time coming, but until the bulk of the Canadian people accept the fact of inter-regional dependency, the ties which bind the nation together will be necessarily weak.

Tomahawk Curlers Prepare for Season

Everything points up to another successful winter for the Tomahawk Curling Club, with the weather co-operating for fast ice-making by the new caretaker, H. Steinke. A dusk to dawn vapor light is being installed directly south of the rink entrance to facilitate parking and entry.

Newly elected officers are: Richard Reich, Pres.; Olive Case, Vice-Pres.; Lanny Bauman, Director; and Frances Gilbert remains as Secretary.

All rinks are asked to get their names in as soon as possible to the Secretary so a schedule can be drawn up by the Draw Master, V. Enjeneski.

No change in fees and they are very reasonable. The club is free of debt and has ample funds to start the new season.

Summary of Regular Meeting Anglican Church Women

On December 4th at 7:30 p.m. the Anglican Church Women met at the home of Mrs. Winnie Hammerlindl, our Educational Secretary. Another chapter from our Study Book "Prejudice and Discrimination" was studied and discussed thoroughly. Missionary Secretary, Mrs. Joan Ingram, read some very interesting letters from Missionaries stationed in the Eastern Arctic and Japan. It enabled the members to know how their daily life compared to ours and prayers were asked for various members of their Parishes.

The United thank offerings were handed in and our Treasurer will be sending these off very soon.

The money raised from the sale of Christmas cards will be sent to the Overseas Scholarship Fund and will enable a foreign student to continue further education.

It has been decided that the Anglican Church ladies will again do some catering and a catering committee was appointed. For further information please contact Mrs. M. Urchysyn at 542-4558 or Mrs. Elsie Williams at 542-3637 after 6 p.m.

The Parish Christmas Party will be held on December 22nd at noon in the Legion Hall. It will be a Pot Luck Luncheon and everyone is asked to bring something for the luncheon, also their own dishes and silverware. Coffee, candy and Kool-aid will be supplied by the A.C.W.

Instead of exchanging gifts as has been done in previous years, money was donated by each member to the Primates World Relief Fund.

The January meeting will be held on January 8th at 7:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. W. Louth at Rocky Rapids. Any member needing transportation please contact Peggy Tyler at 542-3487 or Mary Burrows at 542-3618 after 7 p.m.

Roll call for the January meeting will be used Christmas and greeting cards for the Charles Camgell Hospital, and programs for 1969 will be handed out at this time.

The Ladies of the A.C.W. would like to take this opportunity to thank the members of the Parish for their donations to the Supper and Bazaar, and also for the patronage of the people of the Drayton Valley area which helped make this event very successful.

After making enquiries of some of the early residents of this District it was learned that these suppers have taken place in our Parish on the last Saturday in November for over 30 years and one looked forward to it very much each year.

During the meeting chestnuts were roasting in the open fireplace and later sampled by the members, some for the first time.

A delicious lunch of Christmas fare was enjoyed by all at the conclusion of the meeting.

Sale Success

A successful bake sale was held on Saturday in Block's Store by the Figure Skating Club. The Panda Bear which was raffled at that time was won by Vickie Wardlow on a ticket which had been purchased for her by her grandfather.

The Figure Skating Club would like to thank Simpson Sears for displaying the Panda Bear, the girls at Pan American for making the tickets, the Legion for the tables and chairs, Mr. Hamdon for the use of his store and for making the draw for the Panda Bear, and all the parents who donated to the sale.

Special Service

St. Anthony's Church will be holding its Community Celebration of Penance for this Advent on Tuesday, December 17th at 7:30 p.m. This celebration, involving the entire community, seeks to show a new dimension to the sacrament of Penance. All adults plus students of Junior and Senior High School age are invited to attend.

ALDER FLATS NEWS

A long-time resident of this district, Mike Aronovich passed away in the Wetaskiwin Auxiliary hospital, Monday, November 18th at the age of 75 years. The funeral service was held at the community hall on Thursday, November 21st at 2:00 p.m. with burial at the Alder Flats cemetery. Sympathy is extended to the family.

Notice, to all who enjoy playing whist; there will be a whist drive at the Legion Hall on the 29th of November at 8:00 p.m. Everybody welcome.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Danyluk have been in Calgary for the past two weeks, the first week attending the Alberta School Trustee's Convention and the past week a Municipal Convention.

Twenty-one community spirited people came out for the regular monthly meeting on Wednesday, November 20th. Some decisions were made such as fees to charge in connection with the renting of the hall to the various organizations subject to more discussion on this matter at the next meeting. Each of the three committees were called upon to give their report. The curling and youth committees made a request for money to buy paint and other items needed to get their projects in condition and ready for business, which incidentally we hope to have curling in full swing possibly by the middle of December, if the weather co-operates. The social committee will be busy with the pre-Christmas bingo and preparing for the New Years Eve Dance.

Ron Blades is the person to contact for bookings for curling and the renting of the hall. The Christmas Turkey and Ham Bingo will be December 6th or 11th, and we will be starting regular Cash Bingo's in January, so be watching for the notices. The position of janitor has been filled Mrs. Tugwell will be in charge of the job starting the first of December.

The Girl Guide tea and bake sale was well attended. Thanks to all who came out to help and support this organization. The Christmas stockings, candles and centre pieces that the Guides made with the assistance of the leaders were most beautiful. The Christmas wreath artistically made up of candies which was raffled off was won by Mrs. Doris Larson.

Mr. and Mrs. James Maciborski and family of Wetaskiwin were Sunday afternoon visitors at the Frank Grant home and supper guests with the Pete Maciborskys. - Belated congratulations to the Dick Clemmers and Gene Seely's on the birth of a grandson born recently to Al and Bev Clemmer of Swan Hills.

Congratulations to the Sluchinsky rink on their taking first in the 1st event in the Grey Cup 'spiel held in Drayton Valley this past weekend. Curling on the team were Skip, Donnie Maciborsky; Third, Henry Sluchinsky; Second, Dennis Maciborsky; and playing lead was Wally Nordby.

There were 26 in attendance at the regular home and school meeting held Thursday night, November 28th. A panel consisting of two of each, parents, teachers and students gave their views and ideas on "Parents role in Education". Those on the panel were Ken Hayduk, Bemice Johnson, Anne Olsen, Ruth Cook, Byron Larson and Jackie Gynp. Topics discussed were (1) can parents help in preparing children for grade one? (2) Do parents have much influence on children's progress in elementary grades? (3) How can parents be of any help to students if they do not understand the new courses? (4) When the teacher and student disagree, should the parent take a side? If so which one? (5) Is communication with the school important to all or only in special cases (e.g. parent teacher interviews). Following the panels opinions the subject was left open to the audience for discussion.

The school Christmas program will take place in the school auditorium December 20th. Following the program, gifts and candy will be given out to all the pre-schoolers again this year, so bring your wee ones as Santa will be there also.

On the lunch committee for the evening were Mrs. Marie Melin, Mrs. Mae Wauchter and Mrs. Nellie Hare. The attendance plaque was won by Mr. Moore. Next H & S meeting will be January 23rd.

Congratulations to Faye Jeffcott and Wally Wilson on their engagement.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Grant and Rebecca Cook were guests of Eric Gynp at a R.C.M.P. Ball held at Penhold last Friday evening. Rebecca ended up at the Drayton Valley hospital the following day with a bad strep throat and has been hospitalized for the past week. Other hospital patients recently are Mrs. Ring, Mrs. Poudrie and Mrs. Grant. Mrs. Joyce Hayduk spent last week in Edmonton shopping and visiting.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Maciborsky and daughter of Edmonton were visitors at the Bill Maciborsky home on the weekend, Bill just returned with them to spend a few days in the city.

Mrs. Maciborsky (Sr.) is settled in her new home situated on the Paul Maciborsky farm.

Youngsters Enjoy Free Movies

Crowds of children (estimated at almost 1200) enjoyed free movies in the Cardium Theatre Saturday. The show was presented at three times and all showings were packed.

The program, sponsored by Drayton Valley businessmen, included a visit by Santa Claus and treats for the children. Members of the Oil Wives Club helped Santa and theatre owner Lou Serenas in handling the crowds of boisterous guests.

How Come Us Dogs Get Left Out?

The only unhappy face along the block was on the dog who stood and watched sadly as the theatre swallowed up the noisy, milling crowd of youngsters.

... a trainer for those who fight alcoholism?

People who want to help overcome the problem of alcoholism in their own communities can learn the most effective methods from Mrs. Dorothy Besier. As a Community Services Consultant for the Division of Alcoholism, Alberta Department of Health, Mrs. Besier assists in providing a training course especially designed for those who live outside major population centres. Five day seminars, conducted at Henwood, the Division of Alcoholism's new Rehabilitation Centre, train interested individuals in the development of the understanding and knowledge required in the treatment of alcoholism. The Training Course for Community Services is just one of the services in education research and treatment offered through clinics in Calgary, Edmonton and Red Deer by the Division of Alcoholism.

John Clancy is one of ten economists who help promote Alberta's public image by demonstrating with facts and figures the province's continuing progress. The Alberta Bureau of Statistics, Department of Industry and Tourism, helps industries interested in establishing or expanding here by answering specific queries and doing market surveys on request. The branch, which has a total staff of 25, also prepares a number of exhaustive reference works on the province's industries and resources, including population, available free on request.

John Rosson is one of a group of inspectors who have the trying task of ensuring that Alberta's thousands of elevators, escalators, sky-trams, and ski tows and lifts are safe for use by the public. The difficult and sometimes dangerous work of the nine inspectors employed by the Elevators Inspection Branch of the Department of Labour has resulted in Alberta having an extremely low accident rate for these conveyances. Every one, whether it be a workmen's hoist, a restaurant dumbwaiter or a 700-foot-a-minute passenger elevator in Edmonton's CN Tower, is inspected at least once a year to make certain it is in top condition. In addition, the Elevators Inspection Branch carefully checks all new installations before they are opened to the public.

... a club council counsellor?

Among the most popular youth groups in Alberta today are the 4-H Clubs which flourish everywhere in the province. The committees and councils which guide these groups occasionally need expert advice on organization, special programs and administration. Doug Bienert is one of the seven Regional 4-H Specialists in Alberta whose job it is to provide that assistance. On the staff of the 4-H and Junior Forest Wardens Branch of the Alberta Department of Youth, these specialists are strategically located throughout the province so that their services are available to any club requiring them. Their administrative advice and co-ordinating counsel have contributed substantially to the fact that the 4-H movement today offers more opportunity than ever before, not only to young people on the farm, but to non-farm rural residents of towns and villages as well.

Swimming, diving, badminton, bowling, figure skating, these are just a few of the sports in which Mrs. Vicki McClements is a programming expert. As one of the Athletic Consultants with the Recreation Branch, Alberta Department of Youth, her experience and knowledge are available to all communities in the province through Regional Recreation Consultants in Edmonton, Calgary, Lethbridge, Red Deer and Grande Prairie. These local consultants are prepared to offer advice and assistance on any aspect of recreation. When special programs are needed, they have the support of specialists in whatever sport is concerned. Coaching schools and leadership development courses are just two methods used by the Recreation Branch to raise the standards of athletic achievement in our province.

Doug Gibbs checks the flow of air from exhaust vents with a velometer to ensure that the exchange of air inside industrial buildings is sufficient to prevent contaminants injuring workers. Doug is a Senior Safety Supervisor in the Accident Prevention Department, Alberta Workmen's Compensation Board. He and 46 colleagues work to reduce the number of accidents in industry be it in a steel fabrication plant in Edmonton or Calgary or at a remote drilling rig in Alberta's far north. They advise employers and workers of safety measures, make regular on-site inspections to ensure safe working conditions, and investigate accidents to prevent the occurrence of similar mishaps. The Accident Prevention Department conducts a continuing publicity campaign to keep people safety conscious and also organizes courses in first aid for workmen in industry.

EVANSBURG NEWS

Everyone must be in the swing of getting things ready for the holiday season and our house is no exception. With various parties to get ready for and Christmas exams looming up, life is definitely not dull.

A farewell evening was planned by the gymkhana club to honor the Jeffery family on their move to the Barrhead district. Most of the members turned out for a buffet style meal. Games were played by the younger members and dancing took place for those who wished to do so. Music was supplied by Dave Copeland, Pat Hudson and Bill Blair. Kathy Jeffery, active club member, was presented with a white hackamore. Mr. and Mrs. Jeffery were presented with a plaque from the club. So, from this reporter, the best of luck to the family in their new home.

The Ladies' Auxiliary to the Canadian Legion held their monthly meeting recently. These ladies have decided to sponsor a fund raising project for the arena as follows. Due to all the increased postage, etc., they are putting a cardboard Christmas tree in the local stores. On this, anyone who would otherwise send a greeting card across the road to their neighbor are welcomed instead to give the money which would be spent in that way, to the Auxiliary and the donation will be acknowledged by hanging a small card on the tree with the donor's names. So, if anyone does not receive a greeting card from their neighbor, perhaps a look on this tree will confirm that their friend has not forgotten them after all. Donations may be given to any member of the Auxiliary or to Mrs. Cummings at the village office and receipts will be given. The Auxiliary will also sponsor their usual free show for anyone who wishes to attend. This will take place on December 30th.

The members who are working to start a museum in the district met in the Legion Hall basement last week. Several matters relating to a place for the museum was discussed and it is seen that more preliminary work will have to be done before a spot for a building can be chosen. The next meeting will be held when the president and secretary have done more preliminary work. They will then notify those who have been to the meetings so far. Anyone wishing to find out about the next meeting may phone Mrs. F. Fausak at any time.

The members of the executive of the 4-H club held a joint meeting with the executive of the Entwistle 4-H Club to decide and make plans for a Christmas party for members of all three clubs.

BOARD STUDIES POSSIBILITY OF ICE SCHOOLS

At the last meeting of the Drayton Valley Recreation Board the Director Mike Gormley reported that some inquiries had been received regarding holding a hockey clinic and figure skating school here during the summer.

After discussion it was decided to look into the possibility of a dummy run during the summer to see if the plant could operate efficiently in warm weather. Costs involved are to be investigated and reported at the next meeting.

The question of reorganization of the board was raised and this matter will be considered after January 1st.

The board accepted the offer of Alex Zubot of Stedman's Store in Drayton Valley to provide a trophy cabinet for the Centennial Civic Centre.

Following a statement of objection to skating fees by a delegation from the Rebels Hockey Club the board reaffirmed the decision made at an earlier meeting that all users of the arena are required to pay the scheduled fees.

Sister Anna Chouinard from Berundi, Central Africa hosted a very rewarding talk and film on her missionary work with lepers. The students' union presented her with a cheque for $100 to assist her with her future efforts.

On Saturday, December 7th, St. Anthony's girl's and boy's volleyball teams participated in a tournament in Wildwood. Both teams victored over Niton in the first games and then despite their efforts for first place they were defeated by Wildwood. The teams played off for second place trophies being defeated once more by D.V.J.H. teams. The final results for both boys and girls are as follows: 1st, Wildwood; 2nd, D.V.J.H.; 3rd, St. Anthony's; 4th, Niton.

On Thursday, December 5th after an attempt to raise funds to purchase gym equipment St. Anthony's Students' Union successfully raised a sufficient amount to accomplish their goal.

Chess Club and Science Club are both progressing satisfactorily. The Chess Club has a tournament progressing now which is to be completed by Christmas. A trophy is being awarded to the Grand Champion. The Science Club is planning field trips also to further its enthusiasm.

On Saturday, December 14th our Christmas dance will be held featuring The Timepiece from 9:00 - 11:30. Grades 7-10 all invited.

St. Anthony's is in the process of obtaining school rings, and locker locks.

Tot Rink Now Open At Rotary Park

An outdoor skating rink to accommodate young children has been built on the tennis court in the Rotary Community Park. The rink is now open and all small children are invited to make the best use of it. No dressing rooms nor wash room facilities are available to accommodate the patrons of this rink.

This is a skating rink, not a hockey rink and no hockey sticks nor pucks will be allowed on the premises at any time. It is also a young children's rink, preferably those learning to skate.

Those over eight years of age and those taking part in any phase of our organized programs such as figure skating and hockey at any level have definite scheduled ice times at the arena as well as access to all public skating time and the necessity of the use of this small rink by others than beginners and younger children is not likely.

The rink was built by the Town and will be maintained during the winter months. There will be no official suppression at the rink at any time.

Warriors Win Weekend Tournament in Warburg

The F.M.H.S. Warrior basketball team defeated Calmar High School 76-10 in their opening contest and then set back the favored Warburg five 52-19 in the championship final to win the 10th annual Warburg invitational boys basketball tournament this past weekend.

The local club has always had difficulty winning in Warburg having only one victory in three years but the team was not thinking defeat Saturday. Doug Ibbotson won the individual trophy for the tournament's most outstanding player and to top off the great day of success, the local high school cheer squad brought home the cheerleader trophy and received high praise from the judges.

In the Warriors first game they completely outclassed the Calmar five as Doug Ibbotson hit for 25 points, Charles Swap for 15 and Keith Sodergren for 14.

Prior to the final contest the tension was high as the two annual rivals Warburg and Drayton prepared for their clash. Warburg had reached the final by turning back Winfield 50-10 and the strong Thorsby club 60-32.

The Warriors were faced with the problem of overcoming the excellent and determined Warburg press and were able to do so after weathering a blitz of defensive opening by Warburg Trotters that gave the Trotters a 6-0 lead but by the end of the quarter the local Drayton team were leading 17-6 and they never looked back.

Leading the Warriors on the scoreboard were Doug Ibbotson with 16 points, followed by Larry (Rookie) Mattoon with 14 points and Keith (Twiggy) Sodergren with 10. Ron Cameron again played outstanding basketball and was named to the tournament all star team.

The Warrior and Warriorette basketball teams will be at home tonight hosting the Seba Beach High School teams and both games should be fast and exciting. The girl's game gets underway at 7 p.m. with the boys following immediately after. Friday night both Drayton teams will be at home to Breton High in their opening Pembina League contests.

GETTING INTO FARMING
A Canada Department of Agriculture Economics Branch study of 28 young farmers in the Rose-town-Elrose area of Saskatchewan shows that it helps to have parents who are farmers.
Economist R. G. Wiens found that young farmers depend heavily on family assistance. They gain these advantages: collateral to borrow money, machinery to work land, buildings to store grain, and a father's reputation to back them in obtaining rental contracts.

HAVE A CHRISTMAS HOUSE-
Set the joyous mood of the Christmas season by decorating your home with festive touches. Here are a few ideas that you may want to try to give your home that personalized touch.

Watch your window, in any room, come alive with color by creating a stained glass effect. A star design lends itself well to this technique. Cut the design out of brilliant cellophane and secure on the window with transparent gift tape of a contrasting color.

Wreaths, bells and big red satin bows are just a few of the things which can be used to dress up your front door. Here are a couple of ideas. Instead of hanging evergreens in the usual round wreath or vertical cluster, try a crescent shape. Wire evergreen boughs together and bend the wire into a large curve. Then place multi-colored clusters of Christmas balls along the crescent.

If your door is sheltered from the weather, a delightful idea is a felt tree decorated with all the imagination your family can muster. Cut two pieces of felt into a tree shape with pinkish shears. Baste one felt tree onto a cardboard backing cut to the same shape but slightly smaller. Stitch the second piece of felt onto the first one. Trim the tree with small Christmas balls, rick-rack and heavy gold twine. You can add a couple of evergreen boughs to complete the arrangement.

Why not try this candle arrangement? Set two or more candles into a styrofoam block. Attach gummed gold stars, back to back, at random along lengths of fine flexible wire. Next, wind the wire loosely around the candles until you have the effect of a floating cloud of stars.

Colored glass balls are among the most festive objects used for decoration. Before beginning, check over your ornaments from previous years to see if they might be perked up by gentle cleaning. Dip cotton sticks into a solution of detergent and water and carefully clean out all crevices.

Start with a styrofoam block as a pedestal for a tree. Insert the head end of a knitting needle into the foam block. Use four glass balls of each size from large to small. With the largest at the bottom, slip their wire hangers over the needle, setting four upon four until you reach the top. There place a tiny star or colorful ball. Trim the tree with metal foil flowers, gold paper, rick-rack or seals.

Glass jars which have been used to store bath salts can be filled with little colored balls and streamers of beads. Evergreen boughs can be placed around the base to form an attractive centerpiece.

Additional ideas for Christmas decorations can be obtained from "The Complete Christmas Book", edited by Franklin Watts.

"Every time I ask you something," the angered husband said to his wife, "you answer with another question. Why?"
"Do I really do that?" the wife replied.

These Holsteins are producing both beef and milk as they graze in the shadow of Fraser Valley mountains at CDA's Agassiz Research Station. Experiments show that dairy farm profits can be boosted by raising Holstein calves for beef

Experiments Indicate Good Beef From Holstein Cattle

AGASSIZ, B. C. --Experiments conducted at the Canada Department of Agriculture's Agassiz Research Station are indicating that lean, tender beef can be produced by Holsteins--traditionally a milk-producing breed in Canada.

When Dr. R.J. Forrest began his experiments in 1960, he merely planned to show farmers that they could make bigger profits by raising their Holsteins as beef animals rather than sacrificing calves at veal prices.

"We fully expected that the Holsteins would produce second-rate beef," says Dr. Forrest, "because this breed has been selected for many generations for milk production, not beef production. We had a hunch that even second-rate beef would be more profitable than calves sold for veal."

"We did get second-rate carcasses in that they were longer and leaner than our top-grading beef animals, but we certainly did not get second-rate meat."

In fact, the Holsteins produced leaner and more tender cuts, the two points consumers emphasize most."

It's unlikely that Holsteins will replace out present beef breeds, but the experiments show that dairy farmers don't have to literally throw away their surplus bull calves. Meat from beef producing Holsteins lacks the flavor of steaks from two-year-old beef breeds and the retail trade prefers more fat on choice cuts than the Holsteins produce at the one-year market age.

Farmers in the Fraser Valley were quick to recognize the profit-making potential of Holsteins raised for beef following Dr. Forrest's experiments. Since 1960 the price of Holstein calves has tripled, an increase worth $750,000 a year to dairy farmers in the valley.

"Holstein beef is here to stay," says Dr. Forrest, "and the idea is spreading swiftly across North America."

weight to produce enough finish to qualify for the top grades. The meat, however, is tender and lean.

In 1962, Dr. Forrest began another experiment with Holsteins, this time raising both bulls and steers. Farmers don't usually market animals as bulls because they can be down-graded one or more grades.

"Bulls are checked as they are being marketed," says Dr. Forrest. "If they look like a steer, they can be marketed normally. If they look like bulls--that is, if they are producing a hump at the scruff of their neck--the meat will be closely inspected after they are slaughtered. Carcasses that pass this inspection are down-graded one grade, then used as normal."

The Agassiz experiments showed several advantages for bulls over steers when reared on high energy rations.

1. They reached market weight in 12 months, one to two months faster than steers.

2. They ate less feed, putting on a pound of beef for two or three cents less cost than the steers.

This gives bulls several advantages from a farmer's point of view. He saves on feed, space and labor, savings that could offset the price drop he could experience if his bulls are down-graded at the packing plant.

Dr. Forrest says the bulls will probably be most profitable if they are marketed at about 900 pounds weight. Steers that were fed hormones produced well-finished carcasses and graded better than the bulls.

Dr. Forrest has started a third experiment, cross-breeding Holsteins to Charolais, an imported beef breed which is gaining popularity in beef-breeding circles.

"We should get several advantages from this cross," he says, "The calves will have more vigor and they should produce carcasses with better finish. There does not appear to be any advantage in the rate of gain or in feed efficiency."

The cross-breeding experiment will probably be of more interest to beef producers than it will be to dairy farmers. Dairy farmers want heifers with high milk production potential as replacements for older cows. They get these replacement heifers by breeding dairy cows to Holstein bulls. They would not want to lower milk production by breeding dairy cattle to beef bulls.

Beef producers, on the other hand, are looking for a big-framed animal for economy, a later-maturing animal so it will be lean when it weighs over 900 pounds and a mother that will produce enough milk to get calves off to a fast start.

A combination of some Holstein blood and a pure-bred beef breed could fit the bill.

"The Holsteins will have the size and the milk," says Dr. Forrest. "The beef breeds will have the earlier maturity."

It all started with that experiment aimed at improving profits for dairy farmers. Who knows where it will end?
